Scripture Reading

The Harvey Family

Matthew 22:15-22

Then the Pharisees met together to plot how to trap Jesus into saying something for which he could be arrested. They sent some of their disciples, along with the supporters of Herod, to meet with him. "Teacher," they said, "we know how honest you are. You teach the way of God truthfully. You are impartial and don't play favorites. Now tell us what you think about this:

Is it right to pay taxes to Caesar or not?"

But Jesus knew their evil motives. "You hypocrites!" he said. "Why are you trying to trap me? Here, show me the coin used for the tax." When they handed him a Roman coin, he asked, "Whose picture and title are stamped on it?"

"Caesar's," they replied.

"Well, then," he said, "give to Caesar what belongs to Caesar, and give to God what belongs to God."

His reply amazed them, and they went away.

This is the word of the Lord.

All: Thanks be to God.

Don't Forget to RSVP for Sunday Services!

Planning to be here in person on Sunday? Don't forget to RSVP online at www.fbcgriffin.org/rsvp/ to help us plan for worship materials and needs.

Minister Appreciation

The month of October is Minister Appreciation month. At FBC Griffin, we love our ministers, and we are designating October 25 as Minister Appreciation Day. If you would like to show your gratitude to Steven, Sarah, Seth, Erin and Ellee, we will have baskets available in both worship spaces so that you can place cards and tokens of appreciation for them on that day. You can also deliver them to the church during the week or mail them to P.O. Box 908, Griffin, GA 30224.

Christmas Eve Surveys

Though your plans may still be taking shape, would you let us know what you hope will be true for you in December so that we can responsibly plan the right number of services to include everyone who plans to be physically present? Go to www.fbcgriffin.org/christmas-eve-surveys/ to complete a brief survey.

Election Day Communion

On November 3, 2020, Election Day, we will exercise our right to choose as members of a democratic republic. During the day, we will make different choices for different reasons, hoping for different results. But that evening, while our nation gathers around its television sets and turns its attention to the outcome of the presidential election, we invite you to end your voting day around the table. Into the bitterly divided atmosphere that has become this nation's political landscape in 2020, let us carve out a space to remember the God who unites us and celebrate our commitment to live together in community. The service will begin at 6:30 in the sanctuary

God So Loved

Come all you weary, come all you thirsty
Come to the well that never runs dry
Drink of the Water, come and thirst no more

Well, come all you sinners, come find His mercy
Come to the table, He will satisfy
Taste of His goodness, find what you're looking for

For God so loved the world that He gave us
His one and only Son to save us
Whoever believes in Him will live forever

Bring all your failures, bring your addictions
Come lay them down at the foot of the cross
Jesus is waiting there with open arms

For God so loved the world that He gave us
His one and only Son to save us
Whoever believes in Him will live forever
The power of hell forever defeated
Now it is well, I'm walking in freedom
For God so loved, God so loved the world

So why would I let worries steal my breath?
Even the roses, You have glowed them brilliant red
Still I'm the one You love more than this

You give me everything

You give me everything I need

Even the oceans push and pull at Your command
So You can still my heart with Your hand
You tell the seasons when it's time for them to turn
So I will trust You even when it hurts

You give me everything

You give me everything I need

When I can't see, You lead me
When I can't hear, You show me
When I can't stand, You carry me
