Offering

When you give to First Baptist Griffin, you positively impact the lives of people throughout your community and around the world. Giving can take many forms in our church — gifts of time, talents, presence, service, prayer, as well as financial resources. If you choose to give a monetary gift, we invite you to leave your gift in the offering plate, mail it to FBC Griffin, P.O. Box 908, Griffin, GA 30224, or consider giving online at our website: fbcgriffin.org/give. You may also text “fbcgriffin” to 833-245-5264 or scan the QR code below to give. Thank you for choosing to support the church and its ministries, both here and abroad.

Giving Envelopes

Envelopes are available in the back of Morgan Hall for tithes and offerings. We invite you to pick one up or ask an usher for help if you need a giving envelope.

What does an offering of service look like?

Children recently got seeds started for our Community Garden by sewing them in paper towel holders. Once these seeds have grown to the right size, they will be transferred to the garden. Thank you for helping our garden, kids!

Your Giving in Action

Encourage One Another

Last Tuesday afternoon, Margaret sat in her favorite chair by the window, the quiet of the day stretching a little longer than she liked. Recovering at home has its challenges, and some days feel especially still. But that day, the mailbox held something different.

Among the usual, impersonal advertisements and envelopes was a handwritten card.

Inside were simple words—“You are missed. You are loved. We are praying for you.”—but to Margaret, they carried extraordinary weight. In that moment, she felt remembered. Connected. Not alone.

Stories like Margaret’s unfold every week through the faithful work of our card writing team. With each handwritten note, they reach members in hospitals, nursing homes, college dorm rooms, and in living rooms where the downtrodden wonder if they have been forgotten. These are not mass-produced messages, but thoughtful expressions of care—each one prayerfully written, each one uniquely personal.

While the church provides support through postage and supplies, many on this team go beyond—purchasing their own cards and stamps out of love for those who will receive their notes.

What may seem like a small gesture becomes something much greater. A card arrives on a difficult day. A name is remembered. A heart is lifted.

And in ways we may never fully see, these simple acts of love remind each recipient: you are still part of this family. We are for you. We are with you.

Our community thrives when ministries like the Card Writing Team respond to the call to live generously with their time, talents, and resources. Your support of our regular budget is part of this bigger picture, part of our community of grace.

Each month, we highlight a ministry supported by the regular budget as part of our Your Giving in Action series. You can read more stories like this online at fbcgriffin.org/your-giving-in-action.

Scripture Reading John 20:19-31 TJ Varnadoe

¹⁹ When it was evening on that day, the first day of the week, and the doors were locked where the disciples were, for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood among them and said, "Peace be with you." ²⁰ After he said this, he showed them his hands and his side. Then the disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord. ²¹ Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you." ²² When he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit. ²³ If you forgive the sins of any, they are forgiven them; if you retain the sins of any, they are retained." ²⁴ But Thomas (who was called the Twin), one of the twelve, was not with them when Jesus came. ²⁵ So the other disciples told him, "We have seen the Lord." But he said to them, "Unless I see the mark of the nails in his hands and put my finger in the mark of the nails and my hand in his side, I will not believe." ²⁶ A week later his disciples were again in the house, and Thomas was with them. Although the doors were shut, Jesus came and stood among them and said, "Peace be with you." ²⁷ Then he said to Thomas, "Put your finger here and see my hands. Reach out your hand and put it in my side. Do not doubt but believe." ²⁸ Thomas answered him, "My Lord and my God!" ²⁹ Jesus said to him, "Have you believed because you have seen me? Blessed are those who have not seen and yet have come to believe." ³⁰ Now Jesus did many other signs in the presence of his disciples that are not written in this book. ³¹ But these are written so that you may continue to believe that Jesus is the Messiah, the Son of God, and that through believing you may have life in his name.

The Word of God for the people of God.
Thanks be to God.

Floral Arrangements

The Easter flowers are given to the glory of God and in memory and in honor of loved ones at FBC. You may view the list of names online at <https://bit.ly/fbceasterflowers26>.

The rose on the altar honors the birth of Millie Hayes Plageman to Kaydie and Parker Plageman on April 2.

If you would like to place flowers in the church in honor or memory of a loved one, please contact Alice Blake or call the church office.

What's Happening @ FBC

Childcare

Childcare for babies through age 3 is available on the preschool hall. Children in preschool through 5th grade are invited to come forward during the Time for Children. Following this time, children are welcome to join the Children's Leader for Children's Worship in Education Building Room 207. Parents should pick up their children from Room 207 immediately following the service.

Men's Ministry Masters Watch Party

Worst Case Scenario Children's Leader Training

Runaway toddlers. Surprise fire drill. Bathroom emergencies. What now?! Join us on April 25th for a fast-paced, interactive training where we tackle real-life ministry "uh-oh" moments and figure out the best way to respond—together. It's serious training... but we promise you'll have fun along the way! Come ready to think, laugh, collaborate, and leave feeling more prepared than ever to lead with excellence—even when the unexpected happens. Registration is open online at <https://bit.ly/KidMinTraining26>.

Guest Speaker Coming to FBC: Invite your Friends!

Mark your calendar for May 6th when Dr. Samuel Smith, a renown scholar in early American religious history and Director of the History Graduate Program at Liberty University, will be with us for both a lunch and learn talk and an evening lecture on the topic of Baptists and Religious Liberty in America. Explore how the early Baptists shaped the American founding through revival, dissent, and an uncompromising commitment to freedom of conscience. Trace American Baptist roots from the colonial and revolutionary eras and learn about leaders who argued that religious liberty was essential to a republican form of government. Learn more at fbcgriffin.org/guest-speaker.

VBS Registration

Kingdom Quest Vacation Bible School is scheduled for June 8 through 11th from 9:00 a.m. to noon each day. Registration is open online at fbcgriffin.org/childrens-ministry.

Wednesday Night Resumes

The Wednesday fellowship meal April 15th will be a choice of chicken Alfredo or lasagna, garlic bread, caesar salad, and cookies. Join us at 5:00 p.m. in Morgan Hall. Learn more & RSVP at fbcgriffin.org/wednesday-nights.
